

Girl Guides gear to go on display at museum

HISTORIC UNIFORMS: Museum vice-president Lil Colless shows off Brownie and Girl Guide uniforms with Sandra Johnson. Sandra has hung on to these now collector items since she joined the Guiding movement at Evans Head in the 1960s. Lil Colless is preparing a collection of photographs and Scout and Guide memorabilia for a display at the Evans Head Living Museum. Evans Head had one of the few Sea Scout Troops in Australia when it began operation at Evans Head in the 1950s. For further information phone Lil Colless on 6682 6410.
