Guiding into 75th year

A 75th anniversary was celebrated in style by guides past and present and special guests on the weekend.

Most of the 60 strong members of the Port Macquarie Girl Guides, the Trefoil Guild and special guests attended a church service at the first home of the guides in Port Macquarie, St Thomas Anglican Church.

Then it was on to the current home Rakali Lodge in Hollingworth Street for a luncheon and cake cutting ceremony to mark the occasion.
