Zoo snooze was great

MOSMAN: Girl Guides NSW and ACT held the Great Guide Sleepover at Taronga Zoo on September 2.

The annual event raises funds for Taronga Zoo's conservation programs.

Baulkham Hills Girl Guides had a great time at the sleepover.

Guides and their leaders stayed overnight, arriving in fancy costumes to help.

Many dressed as frogs to fit in with this year's theme of Frogs, Frills and Fun, with money going towards the southern corroboree frog.

They enjoyed dancing, taking in the views, a talk about the animals and the zoo's operations and the chance to explore.
