

What “Local Produce” is Hornsby Gang Show delivering this year?

Sydney North Region Scouts and Guides invite you to join the HORNSBY GANG SHOW 2011 season – Local Produce.

This year’s show runs from Friday 1st to Saturday 9th July. What better way for your group to cap off a fantastic term than to come along and enjoy a fabulous evening in the best scouting and guiding tradition? With lots of colour and contemporary music to get everyone rocking, plus plenty of comedy, amazing singing and dancing, the smiling faces of our local Scouts, Guides, Venturers and Rovers bring you great family entertainment.

In this year’s show, at the theatre in the grounds of Asquith Boy’s High School, the 80 cast will bring you great music from a 1950s diner, a Cuban beach bar and even take on some ghosts at a Ghostbusters training camp. A show highlight is a love story set amongst the aisles of the local supermarket with some fantastic singing and dancing including some great choreographed precision shopping trolley driving (provided we can find shopping trolleys without dodgy wheels).

Online Bookings

This year you can go to www.gangshow.com and book tickets online. You can also call Errol with enquiries on 02 9481 0937 or download a booking form from the website and post it to Errol. The online booking gives you the opportunity to select the best available seats and book in your own time. Leaders can attend at youth prices when accompanying youth from your group in uniform. Provide your Group name when you book.
